

In celebration of the holiday season, Kudela & Weinheimer presents the sixth in a series of fine art photographs of the Texas landscape.

From the Panhandle Plains to the Piney Woods...from Big Bend to the Gulf Coast...Texas offers a myriad of memorable vistas. This year we continue a holiday tradition of showcasing the work of one of the state's leading photographers.

Our 2011 selection by Joe Lowery features "Abundant Blessings." The photograph was taken near Cuero, Texas which is approximately ninety miles southeast of San Antonio. Each print is produced on acid-free archival paper, signed by the artist, and framed ready to hang.

With appreciation for your business and friendship,
Kudela & Weinheimer wishes you a joyous holiday season.
